

“Happened Before” @ <http://www.youtube.com/ESL4free>

Write not more than two words to complete the notes.

- ◆ Déjà vu, which occurs on occasions in between 60-80% of people, is in most cases fleeting and 1 _____.
- ◆ Some researchers think that déjà vu could be brought to mind by a difference between sensory 2 _____ and memory-recalling 3 _____.
- ◆ Another déjà vu theory involves activation of the rhinal neural system, which can cause someone to feel recognition, but not be aware of 4 _____.
- ◆ Another related theory put forward is that the brain's memory system reacts to a 5 _____ experience, such as walking into a foreign restaurant which has the same 6 _____ as one you go to often in your own country.

Check out our IELTS eBooks

<http://myenglishexam.com/books.html>

DIFFICULT WORDS AND EXPRESSIONS IN THE LISTENING

Discrepancy: a difference between two things that should be the same.

Evoke: make someone remember something or feel an emotion.

Fleeting: something that is short or quick.

Mismatch: things which are put together but are unsuitable for each other.

Novel: something new and original.

Random: happening by chance rather than according to a plan.

Sensory: connected to the physical senses.

Tangible: something that is real and not imaginary.