

“Loneliness Networking - Part 1” @ <http://www.youtube.com/ESL4free>

Choose the correct answer by answering A, B or C

1. The Australian study suggests high individual use of social-networking technology
A. can help a person maintain more friendships
B. increases the likelihood that a person frequently feels lonely
C. is more effective if a wide variety of technology is employed

2. According to a survey of over 1200 respondents, those aged
A. 18 to 24 were the least lonely group
B. 35+ were less like to express loneliness than younger adults
C. 70+ were very lonely

3. The survey found that
A. excessive Facebook use caused people to feel lonely
B. people used Facebook frequently because they were lonely
C. people were more likely to express loneliness if they used Facebook frequently

4. The view that social-networking technology had a positive influence on relationships
A. was the minority opinion in all age groups of the survey
B. was generally similar across all age groups
C. was more likely to decrease in the older age groups

Check out our IELTS eBooks

<http://myenglishexam.com/books.html>

DIFFICULT WORDS AND EXPRESSIONS IN THE LISTENING

Corresponded: was similar or equivalent to something else.

Demographic group: section or part of the population.

Facial: related to the face.

Physical isolation: apart from of the main or most significant part of something, such as a society or community.

Respondents: people who reply to a survey or questionnaire.